

Appendix 5 Certification on AHSCs and governance

It is recommended that the Committee should consider the requirement to self- certify against the requirements below.

For NHS foundation trusts:

- that are part of a major Joint Venture or Academic Health Science Centre (AHSC); or
- whose Boards are considering entering into either a major Joint Venture or an AHSC."

"The Board is satisfied it has or continues to:

- ensure that the partnership will not inhibit the trust from remaining at all times compliant with the conditions of its licence;
- have appropriate governance structures in place to maintain the decision making autonomy of the trust;
- conduct an appropriate level of due diligence relating to the partners when required;
- consider implications of the partnership on the trust's financial risk rating having taken full account of any contingent liabilities arising and reasonable downside sensitivities;
- consider implications of the partnership on the trust's governance processes;
- conduct appropriate inquiry about the nature of services provided by the partnership, especially clinical, research and education services, and consider reputational risk;
- comply with any consultation requirements;
- have in place the organisational and management capacity to deliver the benefits of the partnership;
- involve senior clinicians at appropriate levels in the decision-making process and receive assurance from them that there are no material concerns in relation to the partnership, including consideration of any re-configuration of clinical, research or education services;
- address any relevant legal and regulatory issues (including any relevant to staff, intellectual property and compliance of the partners with their own regulatory and legal framework);
- ensure appropriate commercial risks are reviewed;
- maintain the register of interests and no residual material conflicts identified; and
- engage the governors of the trust in the development of plans and give them an opportunity to express a view on these plans."
